As my previous occupation was a teaching assistant and various waitressing positions, many skills used within my previous area of work could also transfer into many other job professions. As many past employers would call me a dynamic ambitious worker regardless of the job, not only that but I am also a very ambitious worker no matter what the job may entail I am also a very bubbly social person which has come in handy in my previous positions as the majority of jobs I have accepted drove me in that direction as I was interacting with the public on a daily basis which also encourages myself as well as the customer to engage in conversation and provide the best service capable of giving.

I am a very sociable person and informative as I love interacting with the public and help where necessary I would love to work at a job where I would benefit not only my verbal communication but also my work ethic skills.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Cocktail Waitress

TopShot - London

November 2019 to March 2020

Within this position i was required to interact more with customers and use my sales tactics as well as skill to sell as many drinks as I could before the night ended with the correct mindset in reading people well and how to go about a sales pitch and knowing how to get on that certain customers level.

Waitress/Bar Staff

Mariaflores - London

January 2019 to May 2019

Waitress/Bar Staff

La Delizia - London

February 2018 to December 2018

Within these two positions I assisted my fellow colleagues at clearing up tables and used my hospitality and customer service skills to interact with all customers and attend to their every need to the best of my ability. I also took part in managing payments, taking orders and various cleaning duties which included attending to cutlery and the hygiene of the whole floor. I also brought food to tables and took manual orders. Although I had only worked at each restaurant for some months at a time I have still acquired enough skills to carry out a basic waitressing occupation or even an advanced job including facing customers and interacting with clients.

- Leadership Skills (4 years)

AWARDS

Jack Petchy Award

April 2015

When I received the Achievement Award from my school for the excellent progress I was making contributing to Life Skills coursework and for my good contribution through performing. The difference the award had made to me was that it was very important to me because it shows me how well I have done in my school work and my singing at school; it's given me confidence in myself and built up my spirit and also had a big influence to my social skills which could also benefit me in a job.

Duke Of Edinburgh Award

May 2016

Demonstrating a high level of Leadership in a hectic environment and also lucky enough in qualifying for and receiving the Princes Trust Award, Duke of Edinburgh Award which also does consist of communication, organisation, decision making, team working and also increase in confidence levels. I could strongly say this experience has benefited me greatly in all areas and made me equipped and ready for the work atmosphere.
